

The Sameeksha Trust Invites Letters of Interest for the position of

Editor
Economic and Political Weekly from academics in any Social Science discipline with interests across disciplines and in contemporary India, journalists with interest in the Social Sciences, and persons with experience in Social Science research and in public policy.

An advanced degree (preferably a PhD) or an equivalent body of published work is an essential qualification.

Experience of working in and leading a team, and some knowledge of digital publication are desirable.

The salary will be commensurate with the seniority and importance of the position.
Residential accommodation in Mumbai is part of the package.

Letters of Interest with detailed curriculum vitae may be sent to the Managing Trustee at managingtrusteesameeksha@gmail.com by 7 October 2017.