Vol. 52, Issue No. 49, 09 Dec, 2017

The Indian economy is showing signs of growth, but the government needs to take more steps to boost investment and consumption. The budget is a key tool for this, and the government should focus on infrastructure, education, and healthcare. The private sector is also an important part of the economy, and the government should create a more favorable environment for it. The banking sector is also a key part of the economy, and the government should continue to support it. The government should also focus on improving the quality of infrastructure, education, and healthcare.
