The provision for taxation has been raised by Rs 1.5 lakhs to Rs 5.25 lakhs. The directors have proposed to maintain the dividend on ordinary shares at 10 per cent free of income-tax, which together with the preference dividend will absorb Rs 3.63 lakhs.

Vulcan Insurance

A FEATURE of last year's experience of general insurance companies was the working of marine departments at a loss. The Vulcan Insurance Co. Ltd. was no exception to this general rule but the company has not done badly on the whole, as is evident from its report for the year ending December 1951.

The net premium for the year in the Marine Department amounted to Rs 2 lakhs. The net claims paid 56.96 per cent of the premium income. Commission and expenses of management were at 49.60 per cent of premium income. Thus, the department incurred a loss of Rs 43,932 which has been transferred to the Profit and Loss Account.

The net premium income of the Fire Department amounted to Rs 21.89 lakhs. The net losses paid and outstandings were 32.96 per cent and the commission and expenses of management 37.55 per cent of the premium income. After providing for Reserve for unexpired risks at 50 per cent and increasing the additional reserves by Rs 2 lakhs, the profit of Rs 5.52 lakhs is transferred to the Profit and Loss Account.

The premium income in the Accident and Miscellaneous departments amounted to Rs 7.29 lakhs. The net losses paid and outstanding were 56.19 per cent and commission and expenses of management 42.47 per cent of the premium income. After providing for Reserve for unexpired risks at 50 per cent, the profit of Rs 52,231 is transferred to the Profit and Loss Account.

The year's working revealed a drop in Fire and Accident business. The Marine business, though unprofitable, was slightly higher than in the previous year. The total of reserves of all the departments, increased from Rs 24.75 lakhs in the previous year to Rs 25.97 lakhs. In view of the present trend of prices of shares and securities, the company has written off Rs 1.79 lakhs as depreciation on investments.

The Profit and Loss Account reveals an increase in profits carried to appropriations account from Rs 2.64 lakhs to Rs 3.36 lakhs. The dividend to shareholders has been recommended to be paid at 12 annas per share free of income-tax.
