CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT

Fourth India Land and Development Conference (ILDC2020)

Theme: Institutions, Innovations, Information in Land Governance

Venue: India International Center, New Delhi

Dates: 2-4, March 2020

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, we are pleased to announce 4th India Land and Development Conference (ILDC). The 3rd ILDC organized last year, had more than 300 participants and more than 30 partners joining from India and abroad over 3-days of deliberation. ILDC2019 witnessed interdisciplinary and intersectoral conversations over 24 thematic sessions, 6 master classes, one innovation fair, a political forum on Land Manifesto three-lightening talks along with pre and post conference events online and offline. Details of this and older conferences are available at our website.

As India moves a decade closer to meeting 2030 UN Goals and gears up to address economic slowdown, ILDC2020 invites attention to institutions, innovations and information around land governance to deliberate how they connect and contribute to local and global development more inclusively and sustainably. Relevant, thought-provoking and disruptive enquiries, ideas, experiences and analysis are invited from individuals, institutions and partnerships. Like last year, ILDC2020 will provide platforms for enriching and interdisciplinary conversations in form of sessions for presentations, panel discussions, round tables as well as avenues like master classes, lightening talks and focussed conclaves. Details about themes and sub-themes will soon be updated at the <https://centerforland.org/ildc2020>

Along with intellectual deliberations and engagement, ILDC2020 will also host cultural and artistic expressions around land-connections. It provides ample opportunities to connect and network with inter-sectoral land actors participating from India and abroad. ILDC has been the biggest land convergence platform in India for land-professionals and actors from Government, CSO, Academia, private sectors, entrepreneurs, media, international institutions. Proposal for papers, posters, displays and sessions are invited along with enquiries on partnerships and sponsorships.

Important Dates:Final Date for abstract submission - 20th Dec, 2019Early Bird Registration - 15th Jan, 2020Submission of proposal for sponsorship, displays, partnerships and sessions - 31st Dec, 2019

For more details please visit the India Land and Development Conference webpage at <https://centerforland.org/ildc2020> and contact us at indialandconf@gmail.com

Society funded by the Ministry of Statistics & Programme Implementation, Govt of India & Reserve Bank of India)*www.iarniw.inCALL FOR PAPERS*One Day Seminar on “Use of Macro Accounts in Policy Analysis” in November 2019

The Indian Association for Research in National Income and Wealth (IARNIW) is organizing a one day Seminar on “Use of Macro Accounts in Policy Analysis” in the 3rd week of November 2019 (21st or 22nd) in New Delhi.

Background Theme: Interlinkages between National Accounts Statistics (GDP, capital formation, consumption, savings etc.) indicators with other macro-economic statistics for projections and policies analysis need no emphasis. However, though many indicators are used in analysis to assess economic conditions and developments over time, it is also increasingly being realized that this assessment could be used for formulation and monitoring socio-economic policies. This, many times depends on the selecting suitable and consistent indicators. For optimum utilization of scarce resources, it is therefore imperative that macro accounting indicators should be developed in conjunction with the need for policy analysis. A strategy for macro model builders is to lay out the three groups of accounts (National Economic Accounts, Satellite Accounting and Socio-economic Accounting) and attempt to design a model that will explain the dynamic movement of all the accounting statement entries in the system.

On above theme, “IARNIW is looking into in-depth study for global economy, agriculture, food, manufacturing, market intelligence, public finance etc.”

All final complete and full paper are required to be submitted latest by 30th October, 2019 to Joint Secretary, IARNIW, Sardar Patel Bhawan, Sansad Marg, New Delhi-110001 (Email: kanchana.ghosh@nic.in or iarniw99@gmail.com) in a single WORD document (total size of the paper should be of maximum 20 pages in A-4 size, in Times New Roman with font size 12, tables size: 10 and margins, 1” on all sides). Authors of selected papers will be invited to present their paper in the Seminar and the Association will bear the cost of travel and stay.
